

names; and second, the candidates for electors of each district arranged in numerical order of their districts. The party columns may be separated by black lines. At the head of each party column may be printed the party name in large type, and below this circle one-half of an inch in diameter; below this the names of the candidates of that party for president and vice president; below this the names of the candidates in order prescribed above. At the left of the name of each elector shall be printed a voting square. All the voting squares shall be printed in the same perpendicular line. Each party circle shall be surrounded by the following instructions plainly printed: "For a straight ticket, mark within this circle." The columns for independent candidates shall be similar to the party columns, except that above the emblem in each column shall be printed the words, "Independent candidate." The columns shall be arranged upon the ballots as directed by the county board of elections.

Form of ballots.

On the face of the ballot, at the top, shall be printed in heavy black type the following instructions:

1. To vote for all the electors of any one party, make a cross (x) mark in the circle above the party columns.
2. To vote for some but not all the electors of one party, make a cross (x) mark in the square at the left of the name of every candidate printed on the ballot for whom you wish to vote. If you mark any one elector you must mark all for whom you wish to vote. A mark in the circle will not be counted if any one elector is marked.
3. Mark only with a pencil having black lead.
4. Any other mark or erasure or tear on the ballot renders it void.
5. If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it and obtain another.

Instructions.

On the back of the ballot just to the right of the center and outside when the ballot is folded shall be printed the following endorsement, the blanks being properly filled:
